Jose Antonio Fernández Garza-Lagüera, FEMSA’s Chief Executive Officer, commented:

“FEMSA delivered a strong set of results for the first quarter. OXXO improved its operating income by double-digits in its key markets, handily outpacing revenues and expanding margins, while Coca-Cola FEMSA demonstrated its resilience and flexibility in the face of a challenging consumer environment in the core Mexican market, partially offset by a strong performance in South America.

We should highlight the sustained recovery at OXXO Mexico, building on the positive trends we first saw during the fourth quarter of last year, and delivering high-single-digit revenue growth on the back of continued expansion and strong same-store sales despite a volatile environment. During the quarter, we also began to see the benefits from a leaner overhead structure and increased efficiency. Beyond Mexico, our Americas and Mobility operations delivered a compelling set of numbers, particularly Chile, Peru and Colombia showing double-digit growth in same-store sales and a significant narrowing of losses as we steadily improve our footprint.

For its part, Coca-Cola FEMSA gained market share in most of its markets and categories and achieved record volumes for a first quarter in several markets, including Brazil, Colombia and Guatemala.

As we look ahead towards what we expect should be a strong summer season due in part to the World Cup, we continue to like our current momentum across most of our business units, and we are optimistic as we execute against our long-term strategy in pursuit of sustainable profitable growth and despite the complex international macro environment.”

Total revenues increased 6.1% in 1Q26 compared to 1Q25, driven by growth in our OXXO Mexico and Americas & Mobility, while our Coca-Cola FEMSA, Europe and Health remained relatively flat. Revenues reflected a net negative foreign exchange effect as the Mexican peso appreciated relative to other currencies; as a result, revenues grew 8.5% on a comparable basis.

Gross profit increased 6.6%. Gross margin increased 20 basis points, reaching 40.5%. This reflects margin expansion in OXXO Mexico, Americas & Mobility and Coca-Cola FEMSA, offset by a contraction in Europe and Health. It is important to highlight that these contractions in Europe and Health are explained by the reclassification of distribution expenses from selling expenses to cost of goods sold, which do not impact income from operations; this effect is only reflected in the 1Q26 results. On a comparable basis, the gross margin for the first quarter of 2025 would have been 39.9%, an expansion of 60 basis points.

Income from operations increased 5.5% driven by growth in OXXO Mexico, Americas & Mobility and Europe. This was partially offset by a decrease at Coca-Cola FEMSA and Health. Similarly, the consolidated operating margin stood at 6.9% remaining stable year over year, reflecting margin contraction at Coca-Cola FEMSA and Health, which was offset by margin expansion in OXXO Mexico, Europe and Americas & Mobility. On a comparable basis, income from operations increased 12.1% showing the strength of the local currency results outside of Mexico.

The effective income tax rate was 17.1% in 1Q26. This is largely explained by a one-time gain related to the BradyPLUS and Imperial Dade merger, reflecting a non-cash gain on an accounting basis, which increased profitability with no current tax effect. Excluding this impact, the effective income tax rate would be 37.9%. The gap between our effective tax rate and the statutory rate of 30% is mainly explained by non-deductible items at OXXO Mexico, specifically labor costs and expenses, and non-creditable tax loss effects, mainly from Spin. Our income tax provision for 1Q26 was Ps. 3,664 million, a decline of 23.3% relative to 1Q25.

Net consolidated income amounted to Ps. 17,639 million pesos, representing an increase of 97.3% compared to the first quarter of 2025. This increase was driven by a one-time gain related to the BradyPLUS and Imperial Dade merger. Excluding this one-time gain, our net consolidated income amounted to Ps. 5,688, representing a decline of 36.4% compared to the first quarter of 2025. This decrease was caused primarily by higher net financing expenses, mainly reflecting: i) a foreign exchange loss compared to a gain in 2025, representing a swing of Ps. 883 million; ii) an expense of Ps. 189 million related to financial instruments, compared to a gain of Ps. 1,107 million last year from the favorable valuation of the convertible bond associated with Heineken shares; and iii) lower interest income as a result of a lower cash position and lower interest rates. Additional offsets included the absence of income from discontinued operations, which contributed Ps. 2,490 million in the first quarter of last year.

Net majority income was Ps. 4.34 per FEMSA Units⁵, representing 167.9% growth, and US$2.41 per FEMSA ADS⁴.

Net Debt / EBITDA. On an ex-KOF³ basis, as of March 31, 2026, cash and investments were Ps. 73,231 million and total debt was Ps. 166,840 million, resulting in net debt of Ps. 93,609 million. Our Net Debt / EBITDA ratio ex-KOF was 1.24x up from 0.69x in 1Q25. This increase reflects mainly the cash outflow related to our capital allocation strategy, which has resulted in Ps. 47,218 million of ordinary and extraordinary dividends, as well as Ps. 16,055 million of share repurchases⁶ during the last twelve months.

Capital expenditures amounted to Ps. 6,195 million, 3.0% as a percentage of total sales, and a decrease of 29.5% compared to 1Q25, reflecting lower CAPEX in OXXO Mexico, Coca-Cola FEMSA and Health, and primarily driven by a cautious approach to investments across the portfolio. The lower spending in the quarter in OXXO Mexico is partially explained by a demanding comparison base in 2025 where the number of openings in 1Q25 was particularly high. This was partially offset by a higher CAPEX in Americas & Mobility that includes a reactivation of growth in the expansion plans of our stores in Latam after a pause to reset certain operational matters, coupled by the reactivation of our expansion plans in Brazil after the end of our joint venture.

Adjusted EBITDA	10,545	8,492	24.2%
Adjusted EBITDA Margin (%)	14.2	12.4	180 bps

Total revenues increased 8.3% in 1Q26 compared to 1Q25, reflecting a 6.0% increase in same-store sales, coupled with 3.8% store expansion. The growth in same-store sales was driven by an increase of 6.6% in the average ticket, and a decrease of 0.5% in store traffic. During the quarter, results were supported by (i) the continued execution of our affordability strategy, which has successfully increased competitiveness across our key categories through increased promotional activity and price-package architecture, (ii) coupled with increased pricing caused by new taxes on cigarettes, soft drinks and beer, and (iii) improved weather conditions relative to last year. These results at OXXO Mexico contrast with a soft consumer environment at a national level. During the quarter, the OXXO store base in Mexico expanded by 158 stores, and it added 888 total net stores during the last twelve months. As of March 31, 2026, OXXO Mexico had a total of 24,455 stores.

Gross profit reached 46.2% of total revenues, representing a 140-basis point expansion which reflects sustained income from key suppliers, as well as the contribution from financial services, coupled with revenue growth management initiatives which contributed to a net positive price-mix effect, led by a solid performance in certain key categories.

Income from operations increased by 20.9% compared to 1Q25 and reached 7.6% of total revenues, which represents an 80-basis point expansion. This performance was mainly explained by revenue growth and increased gross margin combined with cost containment and the operational efficiencies implemented during last year. Operating expenses increased 9.8%, slightly above revenue growth, reflecting higher labor expenses, partially offset by operating leverage, cost containment, and efficiency initiatives.

In thousands of Ps.

Total revenues increased 12.9% in 1Q26 compared to 1Q25, reflecting a 7.5% increase in our Fuel sales, coupled with 36.6% increase in our Merchandise sales. The growth in our Fuel sales mainly reflects an increase in volume and traffic across our Mexican service stations, coupled with growth in the wholesale business. In the US, Fuel revenues grew supported by a more disciplined commercial strategy and pricing discipline, that more than offset softer volumes. The solid results in our Merchandise sales mainly reflect the positive performance of our OXXO stores in Latam with consistent growth in same-store sales, reflecting our initiatives to drive traffic and new revenue opportunities, complemented by operational improvements across different countries. We also benefited from the integration of OXXO Brazil, that we began consolidating on February 1st, 2026. This was partially offset by negative translation effects from all our operating currencies outside of Mexico. On a comparable basis, which excludes the addition of OXXO Brazil as well as currency fluctuations, total revenues increased a solid 10.5%. During the quarter, the store base expanded by 45 stores. Americas & Mobility had 48 total net store additions for the last twelve months and a total of 1,942 stores as of March 31, 2026. This was a result of softer expansion during the year, in which we paused expansion in different countries to redefine the value proposition that will help for more sustainable growth going forward.

Gross profit reached 17.2% of total revenues, a 170-basis point increase driven by a solid margin expansion in our Fuel operations and stable margins in Merchandise. The growth reflects a favorable sales mix, with growth at our gas stations compared to our wholesale business, resulting in higher margin contribution, coupled with expansion in most of our Merchandise operations, reflecting the benefits of scale and a more proactive commercial negotiation with suppliers.

Income from operations increased by 34.0% compared to 1Q25 and represented 1.1% of total revenues, which represents a 20-basis point expansion. This performance was mainly explained by an operating margin expansion at our fuel operations, benefited by a higher gross margin, coupled with improved operating performance across our store operations. Operating expenses increased 24.9%, above total revenues, reflecting the incorporation of Brazil and higher labor costs across our operations, coupled with increased expenses in Latam as we build capabilities to support future growth. This was partially offset by efficiency initiatives and continued improvements in our US operations.

Bara¹

Bara
Total revenues increased by 31.5% in 1Q26 compared to 1Q25, reflecting an average same-store sales increase of 11.8%, with an ongoing strong performance in the grocery, homecare and convenience categories and the addition of 164 net new Bara stores during the last twelve months, a 32.2% year-over-year increase in the store base. During the quarter, the Bara store base expanded by 38 units reaching a total of 674 Bara stores as of March 31, 2026.

Adjusted EBITDA Margin (%)	14.0	13.6	40 bps

Total revenues increased 0.1% in 1Q26 compared to 1Q25. On a currency-neutral basis total revenues grew 1.5%, reflecting higher sales from our Swiss retail and consumer food service operations, which were partially offset by lower sales in B2B and soft traffic trends in our retail and consumer food service operations in Germany.

Gross profit represented 41.5% of total revenues, a 60 basis-point margin contraction, reflecting a reclassification of distribution expenses from selling expenses to cost of goods sold, which is not reflected in 1Q25. Gross profit decreased 1.3% compared to 1Q25 but was basically flat on a currency-neutral basis, reflecting the effects mentioned above. On a comparable basis excluding the effects of this reclassification, gross profit would have increased 2.4% in 1Q26, and the comparable gross profit margin would have expanded 90 basis points from a base of 40.6% in 1Q25, reflecting continued implementation of commercial income strategies and strong performance in Swiss retail and consumer food service.

Income from operations increased 7.4% versus 1Q25 and represented 2.8% of total revenues, a 20 basis-point increase year-on-year, reflecting a strong performance with higher retail sales in Switzerland and solid promotional income, coupled with effective expense control. On a comparable basis, income from operations increased 9.1%. Operating expenses decreased by 1.8% to Ps. 5,007 million, reflecting sustained cost discipline.

Adjusted EBITDA Margin (%)	8.9	9.0	(10 bps)

Total revenues increased 0.9% in 1Q26 compared to 1Q25, impacted by currency translation effects, but grew 6.5% on a currency-neutral basis. This reflected positive performance in Colombia retail, Chile and Ecuador on a currency neutral basis, which was partially offset by challenging results in Mexico, primarily due to the closing of 335 stores for the last twelve months. During the quarter, the net store base increased by 24 units, reaching a total of 4,527 locations across our territories as of March 31, 2026. During the last twelve months, there were 67 net closings. Same-store sales remained flat in Mexican pesos and increased 7.2% on a currency-neutral basis despite the underperformance of stores in Mexico, reflecting the strong results of Colombia retail.

Gross profit was 26.2% of total revenues, representing a decrease of 320 basis points, reflecting a reclassification of distribution expenses from selling expenses to cost of goods sold; this effect is not reflected in 1Q25. The decrease is also driven by the underperformance of Mexico and an unfavorable product mix in Chile. Gross profit decreased 10.0% compared to 1Q25, reflecting the effects mentioned above. On a comparable basis excluding the effects of this reclassification, the comparable gross profit would have marginally increased by 0.4% in 1Q26 versus the previous year, and the comparable gross profit margin would have contracted 20 basis points from a base of 26.4%.

Income from operations represented 3.0% of total revenues, a reduction of 50 basis points from 3.5%. On a comparable basis, income from operations contracted by 4.9%, reflecting a negative performance in Chile driven by a stable gross margin and increased expenses relating primarily to labor, as well as ongoing pressure in Mexico. This was partially offset by improved results in Colombia, supported by the expansion of retail stores, and in Ecuador, driven by operating efficiencies.
